MAKING HEADLINES – ACADEMICS

Franklin Towne Charter High School was very happy to announce that after our first week of school, we were recognized as the charter school of the week by the Pennsylvania Coalition of Public Charter Schools. We are very grateful to Shaunte' Dannielle Reese-Smith, Dr. Anne Clark, DHS, M.S.Ed. and their team for their efforts in advancing charter schools as a choice for parents and students across the state! Most importantly, thank you to our teachers for a fantastic first week back!

MAKING HEADLINES – ATHLETICS

Coach Vanessa Robles and the Franklin Towne Charter H.S. volleyball team are not only winning on the court but advancing a positive message! On Friday, August 25th they participated in the FLY:FWD event hosted by the Philadelphia Eagles at Northeast H.S. where they watched a panel discussion on overcoming obstacles in female sports. They also met some hometown athletes and other guests that included Qiana "Star" Wright, Laila Ali, Carli Lloyd, Superintendent Tony Watlington, and Jalen Hurts! Senior Michelle Palomino will be interviewed by the Northeast Times this week. Stay tuned!

PEER SCHOOL PERFORMANCE

The July results below reflected an intense 10-day blitz campaign to increase our digital footprint through stakeholder reviews. Before our campaign we had approximately 327 reviews and ultimately eclipsed Central and Masterman and improved to 4 ½ out of 5 stars with 592 reviews before the deadline. As of today, we have 605 total reviews! This rating could not have been accomplished without your support as well as our strong Special Education department that received much praise by our current and former parents.
